

Video Discussion Guide: Evan & Jay

Accompanying video presented by Special Olympics Unified Champion Schools®

THINK FIRST

How can a sibling relationship be an example of inclusion?

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS (Or fill out on your own)

Use three words to describe Evan and Jay's relationship?

How is their relationship similar or different to you and your siblings?

What are some ways you can contribute to the inclusion movement that Evan talks about?

How is Jay included at the high school?

How does Evan want others to see Jay? How does this compare to how you see your siblings and friends?

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

What can you learn from this Unified pair?

How would Evan want Jay to be included in a meaningful way?

A STEP FURTHER

What do you think it would be like to have a sibling with a disability?

How would that change your everyday life?

How would you want them to be included at different stages of your life, such as when you are younger, in school or in the workplace?

WANT TO LEARN MORE?

Watch another sibling story: The Moment Series: Noah and reflect on how siblings with disabilities can affect families in different ways.

Start a sibling engagement program within your Unified club, for tips check out these sibling resources.